

BROOKLYN NEWS.

WAS IT BURGLAR OR JOKER?

Floorwalker Montgomery Robbed at the Pistol's Point.

Strange Story of a Masked Intruder and Loss of a Watch.

Police Captain Campbell and several detectives of the Adams street station, Brooklyn, are investigating a story told by Thomas L. Montgomery, of 101 Duffield street. He says he was awakened from his sleep by a masked burglar, who confronted him with a pistol and robbed him of his watch. The alleged burglary said to have occurred between midnight and 1 o'clock yesterday morning. The police, however, carefully suppressed the story until this morning.

Montgomery is employed as a floorwalker in Looser's big dry-goods store on Fulton street. He occupies a room on the first floor of the Duffield apartment-house. He says he retired late Thursday night, and had only been asleep a short time when he was startled by the noise of somebody moving about in his room. As he raised his head and peered about in the darkness, he felt the cold muzzle of a revolver pressing against his head.

"Don't say a word," said the burglar, "or I'll blow the life out of you." Montgomery was thoroughly frightened, and the burglar, still covering him with the weapon, went around under the pillow and secured his watch. After searching about for some time, the burglar said that he was not going to make sure that the watch was not a fake, but he would remove the time if he discovered it.

Montgomery recovered sufficiently to dress himself. Then he hurried around to the Adams street station and told Capt. Campbell of the affair. He said he was certain the burglar was a mask. He could give no description of the man, but Capt. Campbell questioned him but could get no further details of the affair.

The police visited the house, and after examining the doors and windows carefully could find no signs of a burglar having been tampered with. How the burglar entered the room is not explained.

It is said that Mr. Montgomery suspects one of his friends of playing a practical joke upon him, and he declined to talk of the affair to an "Evening World" reporter this morning.

FORGIVENESS AWAITS THEM.

La Paugh Tried to Shoot His Daughter and Son-in-Law.

If Mr. and Mrs. William E. Custer will return to Far Rockaway they will find parental forgiveness awaiting them, although they were welcomed home last evening by an angry father and a revolver.

Mrs. Custer was Miss Lizzie La Paugh, of Far Rockaway. Mr. Custer was a freeman on the Long Island Railroad.

The La Paugh family objected to the young people marrying, and as a result they eloped to Long Island City yesterday morning.

The girl's mother became hysterical when she learned of the elopement. The father, however, was more forgiving.

Mrs. Walsh, Lizzie's sister, located the young couple in Greenpoint and persuaded them to return to their parents.

They consented to do so, and telegraphed their intentions. Mrs. La Paugh had received word of the elopement, and she telegraphed to her son-in-law to return.

Mr. La Paugh, who has a wife and two children, started to meet them at the city hall, but they were not there.

His two sons overtook him and relieved him of several knives and two revolvers.

When the train arrived Mr. La Paugh rushed at the bride and groom and pointed a revolver at them. He was disarmed him. In the excitement the bride and groom disappeared.

The old gentleman said he was ready to forgive them, but they cannot be found.

WHITE'S SUIT DISMISSED.

As Taxpayer He Objected to the Incinerator's Home's Excise Money.

Justice Gaynor, in the Supreme Court, Brooklyn, this morning discontinued the suit of A. T. White, as a taxpayer, against the Incinerator's Home, New Utrecht.

Mr. White brought his action to compel the Home to return some $600,000 to the city treasury of Brooklyn, which he claimed as 10 per cent. of the Excise money of the city.

The court of appeals decided that the Home had received the money legally and that it need not return it.

Counselor James C. Church, for the Home, asked for an allowance in the case. Judge Gaynor denied the application on the ground that a taxpayer had no right to bring an action when he thought public money was being misappropriated and in the event of the court's defeat in the case he should not be burdened with additional costs.

POLICE CONTRIBUTE $5,000.93.

General Order Thanking Brooklyn Bluecoats for Their Charity.

The fund contributed by members of the Brooklyn Police Department, amounting to $5,000.93, which was devoted to the relief of the poor, was sent to Mayor Scherren to-day. Later, the following general order was sent to every precinct to be read to the officers before they go on patrol.

"The Mayor takes great pleasure in acknowledging the generous contribution of the members of the Brooklyn Police Department, amounting to $5,000.93, with the assurance that the Brooklyn Police Department is most sincerely appreciated for their generosity and their devotion to the relief of the poor."

The fund was directed to kindly convey to the donors the thanks of the Committee as well as of the worthy poor to whom this money will prove such a blessing.

WILLIAM BURFORD QUITE ILL.

Last Night's Trolley Victim in Convulsions from the Shock.

William Burford, the young artist who received an electric shock on a Williamsburg trolley car yesterday, as told in "The Evening World's" 6 O'Clock Extra last night, was reported as quite ill at his home, 53 South Ninth street, this morning.

TWO MORE INDICTMENTS.

So Far the Brooklyn Police Justices Have Escaped.

The Extraordinary Grand Jury Committed and Discharged.

The Kings County Extraordinary Grand Jury, investigating election frauds in Brooklyn, after a session lasting until midnight, came into the Court of Oyer and Terminer this morning and presented two indictments and presented to see if the Grand Jury had taken the foreman of the jury handed to the Clerk of the Court caused considerable surprise, as it was expected that indictments would be found against some prominent Justices and other city officials.

Police Justice and ex-Assistant Corporation Counsel Gilbert arrived at the Court-house early and were hovering about the Grand Jury room all morning. When the jurors filed into court they were among the interested spectators. Justice Tigue said he felt some anxiety about a few friends, and had dropped in to see if the Grand Jury had taken any action.

At noon it was learned that one of the indicted persons is a colored man, a resident of the Tenth Ward, who is Justice Tigue's leader. Fraudulent voting is the charge. The other man is said to belong to the Tenth Ward. During the Assembly and Senate contests at City Hall Justice Tigue, for the contestants, produced evidence to show that this man had paid a number of colored men $5 apiece for their votes.

The warrants for the arrest of the two men, Justice Tigue said, will not be issued until late this afternoon or Monday.

After receiving the two indictments, Justice Barlett discharged the Grand Jury, thanking them for their close attention to their duties and complimenting them on the amount of work they had accomplished. The next Grand Jury will take up election cases in Brooklyn and the county towns.

LOST HIS INHERITANCE.

Hand Now Sues to Find Out How Much Robert Clapp Owed.

A suit has been begun in the Supreme Court of Brooklyn by John F. Rand, executor of the Nevada estate, against William W. McCabe, to determine the ownership of a certain piece of property in Mamaroneck avenue, Mamaroneck, Westchester county.

The property formerly belonged to Hawley D. Clapp, a wealthy manufacturer, who died in 1880 and left his widow city. He died in 1880 and left his widow city. He died in 1880 and left his widow city.

Robert Clapp, one of his sons, and also one of the executors of the estate, was a man of the estate, to determine the ownership of a certain piece of property in Mamaroneck avenue, Mamaroneck, Westchester county.

After a time he got into financial difficulties and was forced to sell the property mentioned to Rand, who brings suit for a judicial division of the property.

TWO POLICY SHOPS RAIDED.

Proprietor of Each Held in a Brooklyn Court To-day.

Justice Goetting, in the Lee Avenue Court, Williamsburg, to-day held Joseph Hoffman, of 223 Park avenue, on a charge of keeping a policy shop, as charged in the same address, was examined as a witness. Detective-Sgt. Dunn and a number of officers raided the place last night and secured all the policy books and papers.

The policy shop at No. 9 Dunham place was again raided this morning and the proprietor, Adolph Scherren, was examined in the Lee Avenue Court.

PARTRIDGE DISSATISFIED.

Guardmen in Brooklyn Talk of His Resignation.

The chief topic of conversation among Brooklyn National Guardsmen to-day is the resignation of Col. John N. Partridge, of the Twenty-third Regiment.

Col. Partridge pleads press of business as his reason for his action, and a poor showing made by the regiment at the review before Mayor Scherren on last Saturday night is the other. It is also thought that the failure of the Board of Education to promote Captain L. Candee to be Major influenced Col. Partridge.

Later, Col. Alexis C. Smith is in line for the Colonelcy of the regiment.

TO SUE BANK OF NEW YORK.

Commercial Receiver Wants to Know About $60,000 in Bonds.

Justice William J. Gaynor, of the Supreme Court, Brooklyn, this morning, on the application of James C. Bergen, attorney for the Commercial Bank of New York, ordered the Commercial Bank, to begin an action for an accounting against the Bank of New York.

Just prior to the failure of the Commercial Bank of New York, James C. Bergen, who is now under arrest, transferred some $60,000 in bonds to the Bank of New York. The Commercial Bank now wants to know all about this transaction and the present location of the bonds.

C. A. BUTTRICK APPOINTED.

Republican Banker on the Brooklyn Board of Education.

Mayor Scherren, of Brooklyn, this morning appointed Charles A. Buttrick, of 101 Bogen street, a member of the Board of Education, to succeed William Harkness, President of the Board of Assessors.

Mr. Buttrick is a Republican, and is in the banking business in New York.

GAYNOR SCORES THE "L" RING

Only Six Cents Damages Awarded in 100 Easement Cases.

Report of the Commission, He Says, Will Not Be Confirmed.

The ring that has been manipulating affairs connected with the Brooklyn Elevated Railroad got notice this morning to mend its fence. It came through the attitude of Justice William J. Gaynor in the Supreme Court. He announced positively that things connected
